

CALL FOR PAPERS: 2016 NHOTA Fall Conference

What have NH Occupational Therapists been up to?!

How are you practicing OT? Are you using traditional practices that have withstood the test of time? Do you have a role in emerging practice?

Come share your knowledge about an issue or topic you are passionate about at the NHOTA 2016 Fall Conference!

The conference is scheduled for Saturday, October 15th at the McLane Center in Concord, NH. Part of the NH Audubon, this unique venue offers an opportunity to promote discussion and collaboration in a natural, retreat-like setting.

This year's conference theme is "Reflecting on our roots, envisioning our future".

If you're interested in presenting at the Fall Conference, please return the following information to office@nhota.org or fax, 603-868-7859.
